Polka Luka

CARNIVALE 09-10 Collection

The 'Carnivale' 09-10 Collection presents a delicious range of resin jewellery celebrating, colour, vitality, and organic form. Taking design cues from twentieth century artists such as Miro and colour inspiration from traditional Carnivals and Eastern European folk art, pieces from the Polka Luka 'Carnivale' are pieces to treasure.

About Polka Luka

Polka Luka is a small Australian-owned design label creating innovative contemporary resin pieces with a palette of vibrant colour. Beyond fleeting notions of trend based fashion, Polka Luka's designs focus on contemporary simplicity, enduring design, and wearer comfort. Working with the malleable material of resin, each item is entirely hand-crafted- resulting in innovative, limited edition items.

The simplicity of form of Polka Luka jewellery pieces belies their effect and one of these pieces can easily transform an entire outfit. The entire Polka Luka range- combining vibrant colours- deep reds, oranges, lime, and graphic blacks and artic whites are also designed to work cohesively together, allowing the wearer to build up a delicious range of complimentary pieces.

About the Designer

Polka Luka Designer, Alexandra Freeman, has a background in fine arts, art history, and Asian Studies. Four years of travel and cultural conservation work in rural areas in South West China and two years in South East Asia were combined with further study in jewellery and garment design. An enduring love of colour and contemporary design, combined with the rich patchwork of experiences garnered from travels and art history inform the design and manufacture of each Polka Luka piece.

Polka Luka Design and Production

Polka Luka emphasises small scale, environmentally and socially responsible production processes. All products are designed by Alexandra and then produced, by hand in collaboration with two family workshops in Bali, Indonesia. Polka Luka is committed to practices of fair pay and suitable, and enjoyable working conditions.

All Polka Luka jewellery pieces are 100% handmade- moulds are handcast, solution is hand mixed, and pieces are hand beveled and hand polished. If you look closely at each piece, you can see that each has small variations which attest to its individual design and creation. These effects are the result of their hand-made nature and are an endearing element that should be celebrated. Care is taken to select high quality findings and stringing materials ensuring that each piece is finished appropriately.

Polka Luka resin products alternate between employing either an opaque or matt dye, and then either a matt-natural or a more polished finish. Each product in this catalogue will have a description as to its finish, and after a short time, you will see which finish and dyeing technique you prefer.

As a result of Polka Luka's emphasis on small scale production and individual design, you know you will be wearing a beautiful, ethically crafted limited edition piece.

Warm wishes,

Alexandra Freeman
