'MODERNE' COLLECTION 2010-2011
Handcrafted Resin Jewellery

Polka Luka

ABOUT POLKA LUKA

Polka Luka is a Australian design label creating contemporary handcrafted resin pieces, focusing on clean lines, organic form, and vibrant colour. Working with the malleable material of resin, each item is entirely hand-crafted-resulting in innovative, limited edition, yet emminently easy to wear pieces.

'MODERNE' COLLECTION 2010-2011

Our 2010-2011 'Moderne' Collection draws inspiration from the classics in 1950s and early 1960s interior and furniture design. From a post-war period where designers such as Arne Jacobsen, Harry Bertoia, George Nelson, Eero Saarinen, and Charles and Ray Eames were seeking both to create a warmer, more optimistic, and organic aesthetic, the 1950s provided an enduring legacy whose design principles are much in evidence today. Our 'Moderne' collection seeks to capture this organic approach and emphasis of simplicity of form, and unite it with pure, vibrant colour characteristic of both the 1950s and early 1960s. The result is a collection that sings with colour and hums with a restraint of form.

Polka Luka Design and Production: Polka Luka emphasizes small scale, environmentally and socially responsible production processes. All products are designed in Australia, and then produced, by hand in collaboration with two family workshops in Bali. By concentrating small scale production in these two workshops, Polka Luka is able to closely monitor and improve working conditions, and create an equitable work environment.

All Polka Luka jewellery pieces are 100% handmade from moulds being hand cast to each piece being sanded and constructed by hand. This results in limited edition pieces to treasure.

About the Designer: Polka Luka Creative director, Alexandra Freeman, has a background in fine arts, art history, and cultural studies.Over eight years of travel, cultural conservation work, and design work in rural areas across China and South East Asia have combined to create a rich patchwork of experiences that inform the design and manufacture of each Polka Luka piece. Alexandra's travels across South East and East Asia have also illustrated the necessity of equitable and sustainable trade in improving people's livelihoods and quality of life. An enduring love of colour and simplicity, and a commitment to working equitably are the foundations of the Polka Luka philosophy.

As a result of Polka Luka's emphasis on small scale production and individual design, you know you will be wearing an ethically crafted, limited edition piece.

Warm wishes,
Alexandra and The Polka Luka Team

Thanks to model Salvita, photographer, Andy, and to label, Amilita for the 'Kiera' silk dresses worn throughout the catalogue.
