

WHAT A MOM WANTS

Does finding the perfect Mother's Day present have you stumped? We went to Walker Art Center's Jewelry Artist Mart to find out what Twin Cities shoppers were planning and hoping to get.

ERIN MEHTA

Mom to Koen, 3, and Ezra, 5, with her husband, Neeraj Mehta.

What she wants: "We just booked a family vacation, but otherwise, I was going to get a CSA share through Springboard for the Arts (www.springboardforthearts.org). Instead of vegetables, they send you a box of art every month."

TRANG NGUYEN

Mom to Mathilde Georges, 12.

What she wants: Necklace by Karin Jacobson Design, $85. She got it at the Walker's event. "It's very original," she said. Her daughter added, "She loves pink, red and purple."

YEN CHEE

Mom to Ian Chong, 10 months.

What she wants: "I want to go back to Venice, where we got married. [In the meantime,] I would go to brunch with these guys at our favorite place, Yum!"

Photos by SARA GLASSMAN

KARI CLARK

Mom to Sophia and Elizabeth.

What she wants: "I want to go hiking."

Sophia: "I think we're going to get her flowers and make something cheesy [for brunch]."

Elizabeth: "I'm making her a bracelet from string — red for love, green because it's my favorite color and white because it makes it look soft."