AGF Introduces Precision HSD Case for RIM BlackBerry Javelin and Storm

Posted on: Monday, 22 June 2009, 05:00 CDT

AGF announces the release of the Precision HSD line of cases for RIM Javelin and Storm. Designed for style and ease of use, the Precision HSD promises to be the next must-have accessory for BlackBerry users.

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla., June 22 /PRNewswire/ -- AGF, the design force behind many popular accessories for major mobile brands, today debuts its new retail line with the "Precision HSD" case/carry solution for RIM BlackBerry Javelin and Storm. A world leader in the design and engineering of quality mobile phone accessories, AGF delivers again with the Precision HSD for RIM BlackBerry Javelin and Storm. The Precision HSD product line features an ingenious case design that unites superior protection, quality construction and ease of use.

Research and Design

Founded in 1993, AGF rapidly carved an impressive niche for itself by providing industry heavyweights with mobile accessories that brilliantly marry form and function. By applying the highest engineering standards to their products and consistently raising the bar in a rapidly evolving industry, AGF continues to earn its reputation as a pioneer in the communications market. AGF products are meticulously designed to function effortlessly, day in and day out, providing peace of mind that any AGF carry solution will do its job and do it well. Whether serving industry partners or selling direct to consumers, AGF's goal is always the same: to create quality products with imaginative design and superior protection.

RIM BlackBerry Javelin and Storm

The Precision HSD for RIM BlackBerry Javelin and Storm blends durability and style in a unique case and carry solution that safeguards both the front and back of the mobile device. The patented Precision HSD design will not scratch or rub the surface of the phone because of its innovative, easy to use, one-handed latch system. The unique case design does not attach directly to the phone, providing superior protection without wear to the phone's surface. Available in custom finishes, the Precision HSD's hinged door showcases AGF's engineering expertise, offering reliable one-touch access to calls or phone status. With the launch of the Precision HSD line, AGF unveils its patented long-life 180-degree swivel belt clip, which is sure to become the industry standard.

Features:

* New, patented, innovative carry solution for additional safety and security.
 * Easy, one hand use. * Engineered hinge to enhance use and durability * Does not latch directly to the phone. * Protects both sides of phone for extra protection and style. * Easy to open door to view calls or phone status. * Patented AGF long-life 180 degree swivel belt clip.
