SHOREDITCH DESIGN TRIANGLE 2013

The Shoreditch Design Triangle 2013 is the most coherent street by street event during this year's London Design Festival.

Now in its 5th consecutive year, the event brings together a fascinating collection of designers, stores, galleries, studios, cafés, bars, brands and one-off events for a week of design-led festivities.

Truly collaborative and harking back to the days when the Hoxton and Shoreditch area was re-invigorated by the Young British Artist movement, the event revels in the true spirit of London, a place that bursts with new ideas, historical places and spaces, and the colourful characters who have strode the East End for many a year.

The Shoreditch Design Triangle incorporates fifty-two participants and runs from 14th–22nd September with the majority of venues opening late on Tuesday 17th. Head east and enjoy the Shoreditch Design Triangle on foot.
