

PURITY AND QUALITY

I use only the highest grade, pure and organic oils, unadulterated by process, chemicals or dyes – the highest quality to ensure the highest therapeutic benefit possible, naturally. The Argan, Jojoba, Apricot and Evening Primrose oils are certified organic, extracted through cold press or expeller pressed processes, and unrefined to ensure the finest quality oil.

All essential oils are 100% pure and therapeutic grade, which means that they have been carefully distilled to retain the maximum amount of constituents that have therapeutic effects. It is believed that pure, therapeutic grade oils contain the most complete, well-balanced, array of natural chemical and aromatic molecules.
