PLANO CARPINI LIMITED EDITION

Plano Carpini was an Italian monk, commissioned by the government to travel to Mongolia on horseback to meet Tschingis Khan. Fascinated by the Mongolian culture and landscape, he boycotted his political mission and pursued writing a travel diary. This limited edition is numbered and symbolises the beginning of Mugon.

NAVY EDITION

The Navy Edition was inspired by one of the first functional materials used by Scottish sailors – waxed cotton. The collection was developed in collaboration with the Zurich Yacht Club. One of the first Mugon Navy Edition sets is currently on a four-year, round the world, sailing voyage.
