Spotlight & Giveaway: Fleabag Bed

Happy Tuesday! Did you all have a nice long weekend? I sure did - lots of catching up on things around my apartment, dinner with parents & friends, and several homemade lemon-drop martinis - yum! Anyway, on with today's post, which I've been looking forward to sharing with you for weeks! I'm excited to introduce the hot new company Fleabag Bed, recently launched by longtime colleague and friend, Sabina Vavra, and her business partner, Chelsea Hernandez. These talented and driven

California-based interior designers came together to create a fabulous line of "edgy and affordable" dog beds after Sabina noticed a void in the marketplace for such a thing. For any of you who have a dog or cat, you've probably noticed the selection out there is pretty limited to overpriced, neutral (boring!) and cutesy pet beds. That's until the fabulous new line of Fleabag Beds was born. The latest collection features an infusion of graphic patterns in turquoises, tangerines, and saffron's. Available in (3) different round sizes and (2) rectangular sizes; all are washable, poly-filled + reversible.

Now for the fun part: Sabina and Chelsea have offered belle maison readers a chance to win a $75 Gift Certificate to their shop! If Fluffy or Fido are in need of a new bed, now's your chance to give them one you'll both love.

The details of the giveaway are: 1) Hop over to Fleabagbed.com and take a look at their great selection; 2) Come back to belle maison and leave a comment on which style you like most and/or what you'd spend your gift certificate on. That's it! Easy, breezy. The winner will be announced on Monday, September 13th and will be notified via email. Good luck!
