Fleabag Beds... Pet Chic (Via Made by Girl)

I always love coming across a new product and I love animals so Fleabag Beds were a pleasure to post about today! Fleabag Bed is owned by Sabina and Chelsea, after realizing the void in the market for edgy and affordable dog beds, they decided to start their own business providing affordable and chic doggy beds.

They come in all sorts of cool looking FABRICS as you can see below! I REALLY think these ladies should head in a custom direction, where the customer gets to choose out of a batch of fabrics & have their own custom dog beds made. Feel free to head over to their site here for more.
