

It's a Jungle in Here

By Steve Wide, Michelle Macintosh
(Illustrator)

When Jimmy's dad returns from work relieved to be away from the jungle out there, he finds that a jungle is springing up right inside his own house. A delightfully funny look at family life and the antics of a young boy.

Selling Points

- * Clever use of language makes this book a great read aloud book for all ages.
- * Beautifully designed and illustrated, this will appeal to those looking for something special to give as a gift.
- * A celebration of family life

Author details

Steve Wide is a Melbourne writer, DJ and radio presenter. He has written junior novels for children in the start ups series before. It's a Jungle in Here is his first picture book.

Michelle Macintosh is a designer and illustrator. Her most recent book is The Wish Giver, written by Rosanne Hawke. Michelle lives in Melbourne.

June 2009
Windy Hollow
Hardback

32 pages
170 x 190 mm
Colour illustrations

9781921136429
$14.95
$18.99 NZ

9781921136429