

A Nest for Kora

Claire Saxby
Judith Rossell

Kora is searching for the best place to lay her first egg. Will she ever find the perfect nest? When Kora decides that she wants to move and discover a new place to lay her first egg she discovers that sometimes the perfect place is not quite what she expected.

---

The Author

Claire Saxby has been writing stories and poetry for children for many years. Her first picture book Ebi's Boat (illustrated by Anne Spudvilas) was released in 2006.

IMPRINT:	Windy Hollow Books
ISBN:	9781921136030
BINDING:	Hard Cover
EXTENT:	32 Pages
DIMENSIONS:	254 x 230mm
ILLUSTRATIONS:	Colour
CATEGORY:	Children's Picture Book
RELEASE DATE:	June 2007
PRICE :	$27.95

---

The Illustrator

Judith Rossell has been illustrating and writing children's books for eight years. She studied Applied Science in Sydney, and textile design in Scotland. She lives in Melbourne.

- Beautifully illustrated in a traditional style this book makes an excellent gift.
- Warm story about the importance and support of family
- A book which celebrates a community of women
- Ebi's Boat has given Claire a name as a picture book author for young children.
- Judith is already a well know author and illustrator.
- Claire has been speaking in schools to promote her work and is happy to do in store appearances.

Both author and illustrator live in Melbourne

