The Author

Tania Cox wrote her first children's story when she was 11 years old, titled, A Day at the Circus and has been hooked on writing ever since. Many years later, her picture books include, Little Bat, Baby, Scary Bear, Snap! went Chester (shortlisted for CBCA Book Awards), Wolf's Sunday Dinner and Alberta. Tania writes in between being a lost toy detective, bath-time patrol officer, bedtime-fun party-pooper etc, etc. The idea for With Nan came from her many childhood walks where she saw quite a lot of ground wriggling away... Tania lives in north Queensland with her young family.

The Illustrator

Karen Blair grew up in Perth, Western Australia, enjoying a childhood of playing, imagining and drawing with her brother and sister. She made my first picture book when she was 9 for a year 5 project, and by the time she was in her 20s and living in the UK, she knew it was her dream. She now lives in Fremantle with her husband and two cats. Karen work part time as a primary art teacher in a boys' school, and part time illustrating and writing from her studio at home.
