

eggs

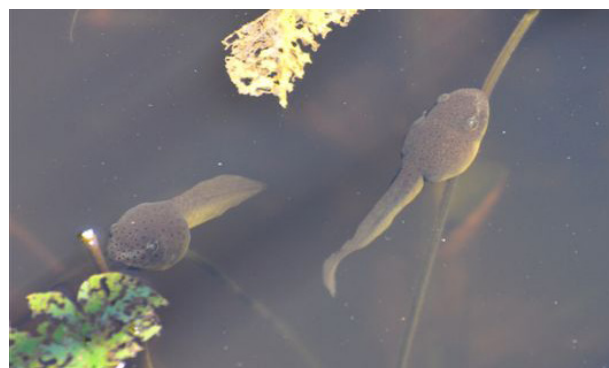

© Montessori 123

adult

metamorph

tadpole

tadpole

eggs

adult

metamorph

© Montessori 123

tadpole

tadpole

Frog _____ are called frogspawn. They are moist and are covered with a jelly coating. Thousands can be found in ponds.

Frog eggs are called frogspawn. They are moist and are covered with a jelly coating. Thousands can be found in ponds.

The egg hatches into a _____. At first they are very small and swim around with a long tail.

The egg hatches into a tadpole. At first they are very small and swim around with a long tail.

© Montessori 123

The _____ grows very quickly. It starts to grow back legs. It loves to eat algae.

The tadpole grows very quickly. It starts to grow back legs. It loves to eat algae.

The _____ is starting to look like an adult frog. It now has front and back legs and the tail is becoming shorter.

The metamorph is starting to look like an adult frog. It now has front and back legs and the tail is becoming shorter.

The _____ does not have a tail. It can live on land or in the water. It loves to eat insects and has a long sticky tongue to catch them.

The adult does not have a tail. It can live on land or in the water. It loves to eat insects and has a long sticky tongue to catch them.