EVERY CHILD IS BORN A POET

DIRECTED BY: J M Robinson
 59 min / 2003

An incendiary mix of documentary, poetry, storytelling, drama, and performance, EVERY CHILD IS BORN A POET explores the life and work of Piri Thomas the Afro-Cuban-Puerto Rican author of the classic autobiographical novel Down These Mean Streets (1967). The film traces Thomas' path from childhood to manhood in New York City's Spanish Harlem, El Barrio, from the 1930s through the 1960s.

H2 WORKER

DIRECTED BY: S Black
70 min / 1990

H-2 WORKER is a controversial exposé of the travesty of justice that takes place around the shores of Florida's Lake Okeechobee a situation which, until the film's release, has been one of America's best-kept secrets. For six months a year, over 10k men from Jamaica and other Caribbean islands perform the brutal task of cutting sugar cane by hand, a job so dangerous and low-paying that Americans refuse to do it.

FROM RIVER TO SEA

DIRECTED BY: S Fink
80 min / 2009

FROM RIVER TO SEA is an emotional, heartfelt story about journeys, decisions and modern life -- a story not unlike that of many women. As a small glimpse into the realities of what it means to be a mother in our times, we follow Susan Fink, a filmmaker, whose life after a devastating divorce is at a crossroads. She is 36, without a home of her own, and living with her daughter in her mother's one-bedroom apartment.

BALLOT MEASURE 9

DIRECTED BY: H MacDonald
72 min / 1995

BALLOT MEASURE 9 is the starting point for dialogue about the democratic process, offering a valuable window to discussions about the health of the society in which we live. The Sundance-winning feature is a chilling chronicle of an historic gay-rights battle in Oregon. As the anti-gay violence escalates, the film evolves into an exposé of hate politics that crosses lines of race, religion, and sexual identity.
