Directions:

1. Think about what you have learned in this class.
2. For each letter, write a term that pertains to the information you have learned in this class.
3. Try to think of unique terms that the other groups may not.
4. At the end of the activity, your group will get 1 point for every letter that you have a relevant word for and an additional 3 points for one that no other group has on their page.
5. The group with the most points wins.
