KRL Foundation Plans Sept. 14 Event With Seven Leading Seattle Area Authors

Seven of the Seattle area's most honored and popular authors will be in Kitsap County Sept. 14 for a program to benefit the Kitsap Regional Library Foundation.

The seven include:

- Erik Larson, author of highly acclaimed non-fiction works including "In the Garden of Beasts," "The Devil in White City" and "Isaac's Storm"
- Elizabeth George, author of "Believing the Lie" and the entire Inspector Lynley series of mysteries set in England
- Garth Stein, author of "The Art of Racing in the Rain"
- Jim Lynch, author of "Truth Like the Sun," "Border Songs" and "The Highest Tide"
- Carol Cassella author of "Healer" and "Oxygen"
- Kevin O'Brien, author of "Disturbed"
- Jennie Shortridge author of "When She Flew," will act as the panel's moderator and master of ceremonies.

This event will be a great opportunity to hear from these seven authors and to interact with them.

The theme for the night is discovery: Where are great stories born? Each of these seven authors will be discussing how they came up with the ideas for what became the magic of their books. The Kitsap Regional Library Foundation invites you to join us for a lively discussion followed by a complimentary wine and cheese reception where you will be able to interact with these award-winning authors.

Larson, George, Stein, Lynch, Cassella, O'Brien and Shortridge are all members of a collective of Pacific Northwest authors called the Seattle 7. They and other local authors formed a non-profit group to improve literacy in our community.

Come meet them at 7 p.m. Friday, Sept. 14 at the Bainbridge Performing Arts Center, 200 Madison Ave. N., Bainbridge Island. Tickets are $50 and are considered tax-deductible donations to the Kitsap Regional Library Foundation, which raises funds to support the programs and services of Kitsap Regional Library.
