3rd Quarter 2011 – September

Lewis Cellars 2009 “Mason’s” Cabernet Sauvignon Retail - $65

Under priced! That is what I think of this gorgeous wine. 92% cabernet sauvignon, 4% cabernet franc, 2% merlot & 2% petite verdot, from Napa Valley.

“Saturated kirsch-like black fruits mingle seamlessly with savory oak spices in this complex blend. Youthful flavors of berry, malt chocolate and plum turn slightly more serious with supple tannins.” Lewis Cellars

We have many $100+ bottles in the shop that are not as well made and simply not as delicious as this one. Buy cases and you will be rewarded over time.

Club 70 reorder price is only $55.00.

Hudson Vineyards 2008 Chardonnay Retail - $61

World-class grower, world-class producer and world-class gentleman, Lee Hudson is an amazing visionary who does things the right way. He has sold his grapes to the country’s best chardonnay producers including: Kistler, Patz & Hall, Ramey, Plumpjack, Kongsgaard and many, many more.

Minerality & complexity usually reserved for wines that cost much more than this. Stone fruits, oak & spice . . . you will love this with rich fish courses and lighter meats.

92 in The Wine Advocate 12/2010 – Robert Parker

Club 70 reorder price is $51.00.

Duckhorn 2010 Decoy Red Wine Retail - $32.50

Giants Championship Wine

Last year when the Giants were winning the World Series . . .these grapes were “on the vines”.

Made by Duckhorn, Decoy is one of the fastest growing brands in the U.S. We wanted a quality partner for this “Giants” project and we sure found one in Duckhorn.

This wine is a blend of cabernet sauvignon, merlot & cabernet franc. Enjoy with friends and family while watching the games.

Club 70 reorder price is $25.00.
