

WHAT THE CHAIRS WEAR

Karen Klopp, founder of What2WearWhere.com, stalks the night at the Museum of the City of New York's "New York After Dark" in this month's What the Chairs Wear.

THE FOUR SEASONS RESTAURANT, which was designed by Mies van der Rohe and Philip Johnson, is legendary for hosting the city's most colorful personalities. And the elegant Pool Room will dance with delight during the Director's Council of the Museum of the City of New York's "New York After Dark" on October 9. Honorees of this sophisticated soirée, including Eric Javits, Jr., Celerie Kemble, and Allison Rockefeller, and chairs Mark Gilbertson, Celerie Kemble, Nicole Mellon, Heather Mnuchin, Calvert Moore, Allison Rockefeller, Shafi Roepers, Andrew Roosevelt, Alexia Hamm Ryan, and Burwell Schorr, are bringing to life an evening that will embody the glittering glamour of Café Society. Thanks to the generous sponsorship of Graff Diamonds and Badgley Mischka, the nocturnal throng will sip, supper, and shimmy in the shimmering temple of urbane design and modernism. ♦

For more information about the Museum of the City of New York, call 212.534.1672 or visit www.mcny.org.

This page: We are channeling the extravagant glamour of New York in the Sixties with a sultry stunner in twilight blue from Badgley Mischka (1) and dazzling Stuart Weitzman Swarovski crystal-coated "Striptease" sandals (2). The Taylor clutch with pleated crystal-embroidered panel by Eponymous (5) adds to the sparkle while the Asprey cascading Lily Pad earrings (3) and Diamond Line bracelet (4) complete the opulence of the evening's elegant attire. Be there when the lights go down and the city comes alive with excitement and expectation of a night where anything can happen! Opposite page: The Director's Council of MCNY.

