

CARDNINJA

CardNinja is an innovative storage solution that offers consumers the option to leave their bulky wallets behind. The ultra-slim CardNinja firmly attaches to the back of most smartphones and can hold credit/debit cards, identification and cash. The unique design is flexible enough to hold up to eight cards and secure enough so items will not fall out even if you flip it upside down. MSRP $17.99. Available in select independent retailers in New York City, online at www.cardninja.com and coming soon at amazon.com.
