Visitor Guide

INTRODUCTION

Croydon Conference Centre is located in the centre of Croydon, South London. Close to all public transport links including train, tram and bus networks.

Croydon Conference centre is around 20 minutes from the M25 & M23 (junction 9) and only around 15 minutes by train from Central London or Gatwick Airport.

Our Visitor Guide also includes a local map which shows local amenities including hotels, banks, car parks and routes to get to the conference centre.

Croydon Conference Centre encourages the use of Public Transport as part of our sustainability and environmental policy.

For full information on our facilities or to download more copies of our visitor guide, please call us on 020 8680 1001 or visit www.croydonconferencecentre.co.uk

BY CAR

The Conference Centre is located in Central Croydon and is a short distance from the M25 and M23. If you are travelling by car, please note that there is limited access during the day in front of the Conference Centre during Monday to Saturdays.

Croydon is sign posted on all major routes. Once in Croydon, we recommend using QPARK (Surrey St, Car Park) multi story car park which is located behind the Conference Centre and is marked on the map (no. 11)

Entrance to the QPark is via Scarbrook Road off the High Street. At the end of the road, turn right into Charles Street and follow the road round and the entrance/exit is sign posted. On foot, exit the car park at the main ticket office and walk upto Surrey Street. Turn right and we are located on the right hand side.

The Conference Centre will be able to offer a discount voucher to you.

BY TRAIN (East Croydon)

East Croydon is the nearest mainline train station to Croydon Conference Centre. There are frequent trains to and from London Bridge, London Victoria, Gatwick Airport and the south Coast.

From East Croydon, you can either take the tram a few stops to Church Street or it is a 5/10 minute walk. When you exit out of East Croydon, turn right and walk down George Street into the centre of Croydon.

At the end of George Street, follow the tram track into Church Street and take the 2nd left into Surrey Street. Walk along Surrey Street and the Conference Centre is located on the right hand side after the footbridge.

For further information on Train times and ticket options, visit www.thetrainline.co.uk

BY TRAM

Croydon Conference Centre is very close to George Street tram stop. Trams operate frequently between 7 minutes peak time to 15 minutes in evenings and weekends.

Elmers End, Addington & New Addington

If you are travelling from Beckenham Junction, Elmers End or New Addington (Via East Croydon) you need to alight at the George Street Stop. Follow road down (same direction as tram) into Church Street and Surrey Street is on your left. The Conference Centre is located on the right after the footbridge.

Wimbeldon, Mitcham & Morden

If you are travelling from these stations, you need to alight at Reeves Corner and walk up Church Street. You will walk pass the Church Street stop and follow directions above. For further information, visit : <http://www.tfl.gov.uk>

BY BUS

The Conference Centre is a short distance away from bus stops for most of the routes which travel into Central Croydon from all directions. The closest bus stops are on the map, No's. (14 15 16 17 18).
