about BLOOM

Bloom is a lifestyle boutique catering to all things beautiful from home décor, jewelry, gifts and of course what started it all—flowers. Anuschka Pashel started Bloom over a decade ago as an independent fine florist in Denver, Colorado catering to any size event or occasion with an eye for floral design that stretches the artistic landscape. Anuschka was born in Germany to parents from the Czech Republic and left home at 18 years old to pursue a modeling career with Ford Models that allowed her to travel around the globe and greatly influenced her international sensibilities. After her modeling career, Anuschka began working for one of the most prominent floral and event companies in New York City and learned the trade of design.

Her early inspiration comes from watching her mother quilt and knit, putting together unusual combinations of colors and textures. Her design sense is also strongly influenced by nature, travel, art, and her European background. In 2011, Bloom opened a retail storefront in Cherry Creek to expand its offerings with home furnishings and accessories. Bloom brings the same unique eclectic sensibility to home décor as it has to floral design with unexpected combinations of textures, colors, and elements. By travelling the world in search of unique products, Anuschka is constantly finding new furnishings and accessories that will fit the needs of discerning designers and décor enthusiasts.
