Padma's Plantation receives WBENC Certification

CHICAGO, IL- May 31, 2012, Padma's Plantation has been certified by WBENC: The Women's Business Enterprise National Council.

The Women's Business Enterprise National Council (WBENC), founded in 1997, is the largest third-party certifier of businesses owned, controlled, and operated by women in the United States. WBENC, a national 501(c)(3) non-profit, partners with 14 Regional Partner Organizations to provide its world class standard of certification to women-owned businesses throughout the country. WBENC is also the nation's leading advocate of women-owned businesses as suppliers to America's corporations.

"I was made aware of this great organization by one of our best customers. We are proud to be part of WBENC and are excited about the new potential opportunities for Padma's Plantation." said Renee Maria Fanjon, founder and Owner of Padma's Plantation.

About Padma's Plantation – www.padmasplantation.com

Founded in 1997, Padma's Plantation is a nature-inspired company that focuses on crafting furniture of natural materials including renewable resources like bamboo, rattan, and abaca to create fine furniture and accessories that evoke the tropics and all it entails. Like the easy-going, laid back style enjoyed by those who live in warm climates, Padma's Plantation designs are casual and comfortable.
