FREE GIVEAWAY \$50 & Hunki Dori Yoga Mat Review

How cute is my passport yoga mat from Hunki Dori Yoga?

I love my new all Jute and natural rubber mat. It's perfect for all styles of yoga. It's richly textured and grippy making it perfect for my power yoga practices. The mat put a huge smile on my face when I unrolled it for the first time this week.

There's a vintage indian postcard from 1904 at the top of the mat with one of my favorite quotes. "Not all those who wander are lost" ~J.R.R. Tolkien

When I need an extra ounce of motivation during practice all I have to do is look up at the image on my mat. This mat is created by combining natural jute fibers with natural rubber tree materials, giving the mat the great performance and just enough stickiness. It's 72" long by 24" wide and 4mm thick providing extra cushioning. I love the fresh and natural look of this mat combined with the inspirational message.

I also have to rave about my new Buddha bag which is by far the most comfortable yoga bag I've ever worn. It's a cross body bag and makes carrying a long yoga mat much easier. I've got the snake skin bag made from a cotton blend and lined in chartreuse poly with 4" x 6" inside pocket. It's super cute making it more than just a yoga bag. The brassy snake skin bag also looks great with a pair of jeans!
