

exquisite INDULGENCES

Cartier's latest, the "Ballon Bleu" (named for its round shape and sapphire cabochon crown), has a graceful domed face and Roman numerals. 18k yellow-gold and stainless-steel watch $6,000 CARTIER.COM FOR STORES

This hulking version of a faceted gem is so unexpected—no wonder our editor in chief is obsessed. Cara Croninger bronze ring $400 TENTHOUSAND THINGS (212) 352-1333

A thick cashmere hot-water-bottle cover provides luxe TLC to that special someone who's going through a rough patch. $400 MALO (212) 396-4721

Obelisks are usually clean-edged and architectural, but this modestly sized (about 6") rock-crystal interpretation has a natural ruggedness we love. Eduardo Garza for Formentero $495 BERGDORF GOODMAN (800) 558-1855

For a house-proud friend with a sense of humor, a traditional brass fox knocker. 5" x 7" $98 JEFFERSON BRASS.COM

The It Print of the season (yet too classic to ever be out of style), on a throw made of pre-consumer cotton that would otherwise be landfill-bound. 50" x 60" $125 IN2GREEN.COM

Part of Kelly Wearstler's exclusive new home-accessories line at Bergdorf's, this gilded, Italian-made ceramic bowl has all the glitz we'd expect from the sensational designer. 14" "Sora" $825 BERGDORF GOODMAN (800) 558-1855