

NEW HOME BOUTIQUE

MAISONETTE

578 Warburton Ave., Hastings-on-Hudson
(914) 231-7464; maisonetteshoppe.com

There's a lot to love at this new intimate home boutique with a clean, streamlined vibe and mid-century influences. Owner Maria Churchill, an East Village transplant and Pratt Institute grad, has a great eye for assembling whimsical gifts—we were tempted to throw a dinner party just to hint heavily for the paint box collection of candles—and special home accents like eco-friendly felted wool animal heads, French linens, and puffy empty wall frames in punchy hues. Churchill sources from across the globe—the sheepskin pillows by Auskin ($85 to $115) hail from New Zealand—to right in her business backyard, with graphic-looking throws from recycled cotton by In2Green in Hastings.

frequently high cost. The Shade Store owners, the third generation in this biz, deliver on their promise: Simplifying the custom window-treatment process while offering couture-quality products at affordable prices. Its 5,000-square-foot showroom features exclusive collections developed in partnerships with such well-regarded names as Maharam, DwellStudio, and Chilewich, and all products are individually handcrafted in the United States to exacting specifications.

THE SILK ROAD

101 Pondfield Rd., Bronxville
(914) 337-2177; thesilkroadny.com

Owner Susan Piper is still "bringing far-away places closer to home," but in a newly brightened space, where hand-carved, rosewood elephant bookends from India feel at home alongside a weathered-look bench crafted in Coastal Living style, and linen napkins made in Old Lyme, Connecticut, match up with a set of natural-material coasters crafted in Bali. Hand-pick fabric for a tablecloth, duvet, or curtains in breezy, reimagined
