

WHAT'S IN THE BAG?

LUCKY <sup>TM</sup> SNIPE

THE BIRD IS LOOSE!

Welcome to the first issue of "What's in the Bag?" You, my friend, are in for a treat as we begin this journey down a path of great hunting tips and fantastic shopping opportunities....mixed in with just enough humor to keep everyone awake.

Lucky Snipe was developed from an idea to link GREAT Americans with GREAT products to the American public. For those entrepreneurs who need a marketplace to show their wares, Lucky Snipe will be that marketplace. We have three main goals: 1) Educate the public. We are developing a Pro Staff that will educate through articles, in "What's in the Bag?" and magazines on your local shelves, local appearances and actual hunts that our followers get to participate in with our Pro Staff. WOW! Exciting stuff!! 2) Be a marketplace. Our goal is simple. Provide the public a one stop shop destination to find the cheapest products anywhere, and not just outdoors items. We want our customers to be able to find the best deals on a wide range of products to maximize their savings. With that, we want to provide business partners with a partner that can assist them in bringing their awesome products into homes all across America. 3) Entertain. We love to have fun and laugh. Life is so much better when you're laughing. So we will attempt some humor now and again and hopefully at least make you smile.

So for now, thank you. Thank you for whatever role you play that has led you to receive this first issue. Friend, family, business partner or customer....you are a valued and vital part of this mission. Without you we would never have gotten this far.....and just wait and see how far we go together!!

Meet our Pro Staff

Kory and Chelsea Cribb are high school sweethearts and have now been married for two years. Kory has been an avid hunter his entire life, and, according to his father, his love for hunting began as soon as he was potty-trained. Kory began competing in duck-calling competitions when he was a teenager, which precipitated his love for waterfowl. Chelsea was raised in a household that primarily hunted deer and turkey, but after Kory introduced her to waterfowl hunting, her passion mirrored his. The couple now base their lives around their shared passion.

Kory is on Pro Staff for Lucky Snipe, Hard Core Decoys, Huntducks.com, and Beretta. He also competes in duck call competitions, and, on one occasion, Mike Keller of Big Guys Best taught him how to blow a call on stage. Kory and Chelsea launched their Falling Feathers call making business in 2009 while also attending college and working full-time. Since launching their business, they have been grouped with Fallen Mallard Farms, worked as Pro Staff for companies such as HardCore Decoys and Beretta, and traveled the country promoting their own products. Their goal is to make a living doing what they love most, which is waterfowl hunting.
