THE TOUR:

Small Room Collective (smallroomcollective.com) curates small artistic movements. We are purveyors of fine small press and independently produced clothing, goods, art and music. We travel from city to city, embracing human connection, new experiences, and unique settings. As we explore and celebrate people, places and artistry around the U.S., we hope to link together multiple lifelines to help support makers and causes. More dates and venues coming...

THE CAUSE:

Small Room Collective is dedicated to connecting people with artistry through shared experience, utilizing media outlets to develop networks and support for artists, musicians, designers, and non-profits within their communities and at large. Additionally, part of the proceeds from the 2013 tour will benefit The Pablove Foundation to aide in the fight against childhood cancer (pablove.org.)

THE PARTNERS:

DRY Soda. Topo Chico. Schubas. Space15Twenty. Our lovely artists, musicians and brands. And the list is growing...

THE KICK-OFF:

The Small Room Collective Tour kicks off at SXSW 2013. Teaming with Charm School Vintage, Riot Act Media, Coco Coquette, and Salon D'Etoile, SRC presents a roaring SXSW collaborative event celebrating fashion and music in the setting of Charm School Vintage's fabulously quaint house-turned-shop in East Austin.

NEW MARKETING OPPORTUNITIES:

Your dedication to small press, your cultural initiative to embrace artists and makers, and your celebration of arts, culture and communities within cities spanning the U.S.
