

Luxe Life

Dress up your digs at these Downtown boutiques. by Lyndsay McGregor

PERFECT PICKIN'

Elizabeth Bauer likes to stock her store with odds and ends she finds at antiques shops, so it's anything goes in this Aladdin's cave full of vintage furniture, art and high-end accessories. 43 Greenwich Ave., 212-255-8625; elizabethbauerdesign.com

Eero Saarinen for Knoll Tulip stools covered in vintage Hermès scarves ($950 each)

BENT ON BAVARIA

When decorator Nina Freudenberger opened her Nolita boutique, Haus Interior, a year ago, she wanted to fill it with affordable pieces reminiscent of her Bavarian roots. Recessionistas rejoice in this home haven stocking everything from lanterns to hand-glazed ceramic cups and retro Swedish glassware. 250 Elizabeth St., 212-741-0455; hausinterior.com

Porcelain Paper Plates ($60 each), Virginia Sin

SWEET DREAM

If you plan on revamping your bedroom, Tribeca treasure Stella should be your first stop. Thanks to Italian bed linens from the likes of Dea and Missoni Home, plus handcrafted fair trade goods from all over the world, your best night's sleep is just around the corner. 138 West Broadway, 212-233-9610; stellastore.com

FLAIR FOR FABULOUSNESS

The ever-evolving selection at Flair includes both European antiques and the brand's own exclusive designs, for an effortless mix of vintage and contemporary pieces that will add a touch of luxury to anyone's home. 88 Grand St., 212-274-1750; flairhomecollection.com

Flare vase ($128)
Flair Home Collection

