with New Improved Clearspring Organic Teriyaki Sauce

Traditional Japanese teriyaki sauce is made from a blend of mirin, a sweet rice seasoning, and soya sauce, but it is notoriously difficult to make at home. Clearspring Organic Teriyaki Sauce has been reformulated to bring the true flavour of this classic Japanese dish to your home cooking. It is prepared to a traditional Japanese recipe using authentic ingredients, all of which are organic. The secret to its deliciousness is the perfect balance between sweet and savoury, achieved in the balance between mirin and soya sauce. This is a recipe that is closely guarded and has taken years to perfect.

Clearspring Organic Teriyaki Sauce is perfect for adding a deliciously sweet yet savoury flavour to fish, stir-fries, barbeques, roasts, grills and marinades.

Clearspring Organic Teriyaki Sauce contains only natural sweeteners, such as corn malt syrup and apple juice, instead of the large quantities of sugar that are present in many other sauces on the market today.
