All About Me

This is a good getting to know you activity in the Fall. Send home a Book-in-a-Bag. Decorate the cover with a favorite fall Creative Shapes Etc.® notepad. Students can collect photos, clippings from favorite magazines, or draw their own pictures. The bag can hold special objects that tell something unique about the person.

Paper Bag Book Reports

Students enjoy this unique approach to book reports. In addition to writing about who, what, when, where, and how, students can collect images or objects that relate to the story. This can become a storytelling bag with props and even stick puppets.

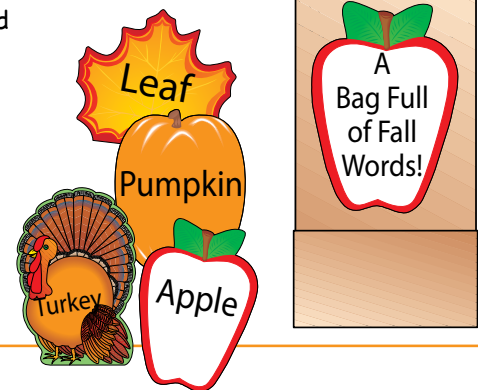

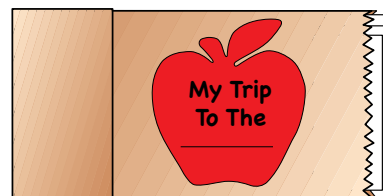

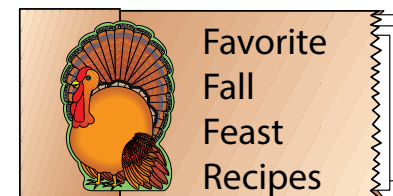

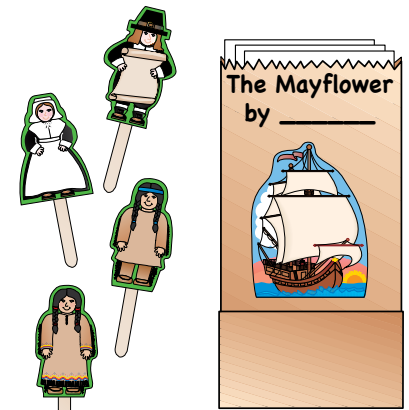

Field Trip Fun Bags

Students can take along a Book-in-a-Bag and take notes, collect things, or make drawings about their trip. This is a fun & easy way to collect leaves and bark for rubbings.

A Bagful of Fall Recipes

Students can create a Recipe Book-in-a-Bag. Copying recipes is a fun way to practice handwriting skills. Measuring ingredients and following the recipes is good for science skills. Plan a Fall feast, involve parents, and collect everyone's favorite Fall treats!
