

ARCHITECTURAL DIGEST

THE INTERNATIONAL DESIGN AUTHORITY

MARCH 2012

Exclusive

CELEBRITIES AT HOME

AD VISITS:

BROOKE SHIELDS

ADAM LEVINE

JULIANNE
MOORE

DARREN STAR

GIORGIO
ARMANI

ALEX KATZ

DIANE VON FURSTENBERG

PLUS:
Ali Wentworth
& George
Stephanopoulos

SHOPPING

MOST WANTED

From simple pleasures to ultimate luxuries

WRITTEN AND PRODUCED BY ANNE MONOKY

Vibrant amazonite beads and a handcrafted toggle of 18K gold lend a sumptuous air to this 20" necklace by Los Angeles jewelry designer Suzanne Felsen. It weighs 900 carats and costs $2,500. suzannefelsen.com, 323-653-5400

Inspired by Karl Blossfeldt's botanical photographs, the Chamber chandelier by Alison Berger features bud-shaped pendants of handblown leaded crystal. The light fixture is offered in several sizes—the 17-bulb version above measures 37" h. x 26" dia. with a varying drop length. Its tiered bronze arms come in two patinas: dark amber (shown) and brown/black; to the trade at Holly Hunt. hollyhunt.com, 800-320-3145

BeeLine Home's Black Beauty center table, of ebony-stained wood with ivory-painted accents, recalls the delicate bone inlay of traditional Anglo-Indian furniture. Designed by AD100 decorator Bunny Williams, it measures 29" h. x 48" dia. and costs $4,800. beeline-home.com, 212-935-5930

The Spotlight fabric collection, created by AD100 architect and interior designer David Rockwell for Jim Thompson, includes Pod cotton, a whimsical print featuring free-form stripes in a seedlike pattern. It is available in seven colors, among them these three shades of blue; to the trade, jimthompsonfabrics.com, 800-262-0336

STYLED BY MARIANA VERA; CHANDELIER, COURTESY OF HOLLY HUNT; TABLE, COURTESY OF WIDNER CREATIVE