THE LIBRARY OF DR JOHN CHAPMAN

The auction of John Chapman's books and manuscripts was an outstanding success. Each of the three sessions was well attended – with upwards of 300 present on the first night – and there were numerous absentee and phone bidders. A sense of occasion was evident and this was reflected in the prices obtained.

Of the 650 lots offered only 41 remained unsold, and of these the one high-value item, lot 516, Phillip, Extract of letters, extracts of letters, 1791, sold immediately after for its reserve of $10,000. The total realisation of $1,624,688 (including buyer's premium & GST) was well above expectations: the many rare and unique items in the collection often fetched far in advance of the estimates.

Highlights included:
