

You've got a GOLDEN TICKET

GET $10 OFF SINGLE MALTS of SCOTLAND
WITH THIS NIFTY PAPER-BASED COUPON

Scotch is back — although with more than 500 years of tradition, some would say it never left. With this unique poster, you'll travel around Scotland's major distilling regions, trying (and logging) a single malt from each. Travel from the Highlands to the Islands, and everywhere in between.

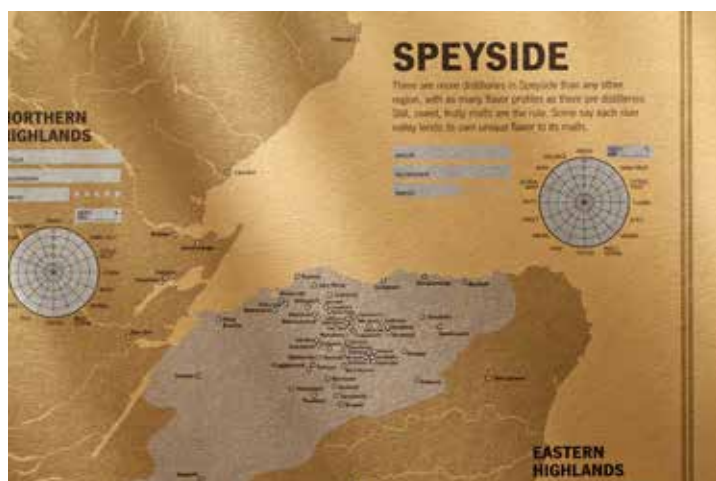

Stop by my booth at WhiskeyFest NW and pick up a Scotch tasting map for just $20 when you present this card.

REDEEM IN PERSON AT WHISKEYFEST NW. LIMIT ONE COUPON PER PERSON. LIMITED TO SUPPLIES ON HAND. NO RAIN CHECKS (THIS IS PORTLAND, RIGHT?)

The only way to include every area was to make this poster big. It's 18 inches wide and 24 inches tall. There's a spot to review a whisky from each of the major areas:

- The Islands (Orkney, Skye, Jura, Orkney, Arran and Mull)
- Islay (yep, it's an island, but it deserves its own designation)
- The Highlands (Northern, Eastern, Central and Western)
- Lowlands
- Speyside
- Campeltown

Each region contains a space that will let you log a whisky from that particular region, with a place to note its distiller, age or expression, and the occasion you sampled it. I'll drink to that.
