Luxury Garage Sale

As its name implies, this venture deals in second-hand designerwear. Started as an online business, the boutique's brick-and-mortar component, which operates on a consignment basis, launched in late 2012 in the trendy North Side district by Lincoln Park. Owners Brielle Buchberg and Lindsay Segal are long-time friends with years of hands-on experience as collectors of vintage and contemporary clothes and accessories. The shop stocks pieces by the likes of Chanel, Fendi, Prada, Alexander McQueen and Viktor & Rolf, all in good condition and at highly reasonable prices. Serious vintage hounds should expect to find something covetable on each visit, as there is a steady stream of merchandise arriving in store.
