

Terms of Use

These are the terms of use (hereinafter referred to as "Terms of Use") governing the BiiSafe Ltd (hereinafter "Biisafe") website www.biisafe.com (hereinafter "Website"). Users (hereinafter "User") are requested to read these Terms of Use carefully before using this Website. Use of this Website constitutes acceptance of these Terms of Use.

Right to use the Website

This Website may only be used for informational purposes. The content on this Website, such as text, software, technical drawings, configurations, graphics, pictures and other files as well as their selection, design and arrangement (hereinafter "Materials") are the property of BiiSafe or its licensee(s). All rights reserved. The User has the right to use and examine this Website and also the right to examine and download the Material only for personal and non-commercial use. The Website may be viewed, browsed and printed out for the User's personal use. The Material shall not be edited, copied, publicly displayed, presented or distributed in any way or otherwise used for public or commercial purposes without the prior written consent of BiiSafe. The Material may, however, be used for journalistic and educational purposes, on the condition that the source is indicated when using the said Material.

The User shall be liable for the validity and arrival of any information submitted to the Website. The User undertakes not to send illegal or inappropriate material to the Website. The User shall ensure that any material sent to the Website is free from viruses and other harmful data or content.

Processing of Personal Data

BiiSafe may collect personal data, such as the User's name and email address, via the Website. Any personal data provided via the Website may be processed by BiiSafe in accordance with applicable personal data legislation. Data is recorded in BiiSafe's register.

The data stored in the register is used e.g. for processing feedback and comments as well as for developing the activity and operations of BiiSafe and its Website. BiiSafe and companies belonging to the same group as BiiSafe shall also have the right to process the data stored in the register and to use the data for appropriate purposes (such as direct marketing) in accordance with applicable personal data legislation. The User has the statutory right to prohibit the processing of his/her personal data for the purposes of direct marketing, and distance sales as well as other forms of direct advertising.

Cookies

BiiSafe uses temporary cookies on its Website in order to improve the User's experience when visiting BiiSafe's Website. Cookies are small text files which contain information about the User's browsing activities on the Website and which are located in the User's browser directory. Cookies enable BiiSafe to identify frequent visitors to the Website, facilitate the process of logging in to the Website and allow for the compilation of information concerning the User. BiiSafe uses the aforementioned information to continuously improve its Website. Cookies do not harm the User's computers or files.

If the User does not wish for BiiSafe to obtain the information specified above via the use of cookies, most browsers include the option to disable cookies. Cookies may, however, be necessary in order for some of BiiSafe Materials and Website to function properly.

Intellectual property rights

The copyright of this Website and of all the Material contained therein is protected under international copyright laws and copyright conventions. The User shall be required to comply globally with all copyright laws when using this Website or examining the Materials, and to prevent the unauthorised copying of the Material.

All intellectual property rights pertaining to the Website and Materials (including without limitation copyright, registered and unregistered trademark and design rights, patents, domain names, business names, trade secrets and database rights) shall be retained by BiiSafe or by its licensee(s). BiiSafe grants the User no direct or indirect rights to any intellectual property rights related to the Website and/or Materials. All rights reserved.

Links to third party websites

BiiSafe may include on its Website links to websites maintained by third parties. The use of such links transfers the User away from this Website. BiiSafe neither supervises nor verifies the content of third party websites, nor shall BiiSafe be liable for the validity, reliability or data security of third party websites. The User is advised to familiarise themselves with the terms and conditions of use and the user instructions of linked websites with care before using the said websites. The User shall use the linked websites entirely at the User's own risk.

The links shall, as such, constitute no indication of title to the linked website, nor to any support of BiiSafe for the said website or of its approval for materials therein; nor that BiiSafe is entitled to use any trademark, trade names or copyrighted material that may be viewed via the said links; nor that the proprietor of a linked website is entitled to use any trademarks, trade names, domain names, copyright or Materials of BiiSafe or of its licensee(s) or associated companies or subsidiaries.

External links to this Website

Third party websites may link to this Website in accordance with good practices. The Website page linked on a third party website should be shown in the browser in full and in the same manner as on the Website. Links leading to this Website must be removed if requested by BiiSafe.

Amendments

BiiSafe reserves the right to amend and modify these Terms of Use, and to add or remove any part of these Terms of Use, in whole or in part, at any time at BiiSafe's own discretion. All amendments to these Terms of Use shall take effect when they have been announced on the Website. Any use of the Website following an amendment made to the Terms of Use shall constitute acceptance of the said amendment.

Limitation of liability

BiiSafe strives in every way to only provide reliable and correct information, but it nevertheless does not guarantee the reliability or correctness of information either on the Website or which can be obtained via the Website. The Materials may contain inaccuracies and typographical errors. All content as well as the Website and Materials are offered "as is".

BiiSafe utilises all means at its disposal to attempt to maintain the Website functional, but it cannot be held liable for its availability.

BiiSafe reserves the right to continuously make changes to the Website.

BiiSafe shall not be liable for any damages caused directly or indirectly by using the Website or the Material on it or resulting from the inaccessibility of this Website or Materials.

Applicable legislation

These Terms of Use shall be governed by the laws of Finland, excluding its choice of law provisions.

If BiiSafe and the User are unable to negotiate an understanding on any point of dispute, the said dispute shall be settled in the first instance at the District Court of Helsinki. Nothing herein shall limit the User's rights as a consumer under applicable mandatory consumer legislation.
