PRACTICAL | application to my life

Connect Groups are meant to be a place where we minister to one another and walk with each other through the storms of life. With that understanding, what are you expecting from this season of Connect Groups?

Is there a storm you're going through that you'd like prayer for?

QUICK REVIEW

Looking back at your notes from this week's message, was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged or confused you?

HISTORICAL | getting to know me

- 1. This week we learned how the disciples were panicked and scared in the middle of a storm. Looking back in your life, can you think of any storms you've gone through? If so, how did you feel?
- 2. Which of the two observations on storms in this week's message caught your attention the most?

BIBLICAL | digging deeper into the Bible

- 1. This week we saw how the disciples responded in fear-rather than faith—when the storm hit their boat. The disciples aren't the only people to fall on hard times. Scripture is full of individuals, even followers of God, who endured storms. According to the following verses, how did these individuals respond to the storms in their life?
 - a. Job (JOB 1:13-22)
 - b. Jonah (JONAH 4:5-11)
 - c. Paul (2 CORINTHIANS 11:21-31)
 - d. Job's wife (JOB 2:9-10)
 - e. Habakkuk (HABAKKUK 3:17-19)

Which of their responses do you identify with the most? Why?

- 2. We aren't promised God's PROTECTION FROM storms, but we are promised His PRESENCE IN storms. Does your perspective of storms change knowing God is with you through them? If so, how?
- 3. Although the details of each storm you go through is unique, the Bible offers words of assurance and encouragement to some of the common storms humans face. What do the following verses offer us in the storms we face?
 - a. Fractured relationship (COLOSSIANS 3:12-13)
 - b. Rebellious children (PROVERBS 22:6, EPHESIANS 6:4)
 - c. Death (1 THESSALONIANS 4:13-18)
 - d. Financial loss (PSALM 20:7, MATTHEW 6:33)

Which passage above is most helpful for you?

Storms are difficult, confusing and often times cause us to ask, "Why?" Sometimes the answer is obvious; while often it's unclear. But for those who belong to the Lord, a promise is given in ROMANS 8:28. Looking back, with the perspective of hindsight, what are some of the lessons you've learned from some of the storms you've faced?

Based on your experience, how might you encourage someone else going through a difficult storm? (2 CORINTHIANS 1:3-5)
