

THINGS WE LOVE THIS WEEK

Wear your heart on your wrist with Lynette Lovelace's glass and silk Life Therapy bracelets. The pieces, studded with turquoise stones said to absorb negativity, come in a variety of colors meant to represent every type of mood. $18 and up, The Green Goddess Boutique, 1009 W. Armitage; Lifetherapy.com

The cronut craze is sweeping the nation — be one of the first Chicagoans to snag a croissant-doughnut hybrid at Gür Sweets, where chef Rubina Hafeez is stuffing the sweet treats with mango filling. $5, 162 N. York, Elmhurst; Gursweets.com

The Chicago-based skincare experts at H2O+ are keeping things smooth this summer with the Spa Sea Salt Skin Smoother. The exfoliating scrub softens dry patches with a mix of sea salt, almond oil and an anti-aging marine blend. $27, Ulta, 114 S. State; Ulta.com

ROOF on theWit (201 N. State) takes movie night to new heights Mondays through Oct. 7. Settle in at dusk and catch favorite flicks on the restaurant's 20-foot screen, accompanied by complimentary popcorn. Upcoming shows include "The Big Lebowski" (June 24) and "Back to the Future" (July 1). View the full schedule at Roofonthewit.com.

SPLASH

WHAT IS YOUR MUST-WATCH TV SHOW OF THE SUMMER?

"Suits,' a delicious summer dramedy — set in a law office — that is full of romance and backstabbing. Plus, it stars my No. 1 celebrity crush, Gabriel Macht."

"I'm glad to have Alexander Skarsgård back in my life every week with the new season of 'True Blood.' I'm already hooked."

"I'm a sucker for some Piper Perabo in 'Covert Affairs.' I'm not saying that I want to be a spy, but I'm not not saying it."
