Editor's Radar

As I age, my skin gets drier, but one thing that doesn't change is my oil-slick of a T-zone. I've tried many a product to control shine, while still keeping my face protected from damaging UV rays. This is my tried-and-proven regimen for a glowy — not goopy — face.

- 1. Two tried editors and I always come back to this.
- 2. Shields Sun Protection Compact Foundation in SP2.
- 3. This highly moisturizing and Micro-particles and Impurities, with microbubbles of argon gas, just get on top of makeup. Shaka Foundation, Polish.
- 4. A genius powder with micronized UV filters for easy reapplication throughout the day. Brush on Block Instant Mineral Sunscreen SPF 30.

1. This variable dilution treatment uses micro-currents to deliver extra tiny hyaluronic acid molecules deep within the skin. Mikarizone Eye System... 2. This gorgeous brush comes even with the same after washing. This ingenious glowy SPF-C light (the same light used to sterilize surgical instruments) to eliminate germs from brushes. Purely Products Pocket Purifier... 3. Don't Forget! This platinum beauty roller tightens skin with micro-currents. The great! Clear a willow with sold in Japan in just two years. ReFa Pro Platinum Electric Roller... 4. Zip also using the same LHR technology dermatologists use, and we're by percent improvement by tomorrow! Oh, your radiant skin.
