

CROSS COUNTRY SKIER

THE JOURNAL OF NORDIC SKIING

DEC 2012

WWW.CROSSCOUNTRYSKIING.COM

NEWSTUFF

The editors of Cross Country Skier receive a steady stream of press releases about the latest and greatest products of interest to winter sports enthusiasts. This month we bring you an eclectic collection of skin care, nutrition and accessories. Feel free to do your part to keep the economy moving forward by purchasing early and often.

Skin Care

BRUSH ON BLOCK

Brush On Block is a non-irritating, sweat- and water-resistant sunscreen that comes in a self-dispensing, refillable brush. Unlike chemical sunscreens, which work by being absorbed into the skin, Brush On Block features natural minerals that sit on top of the skin and reflect the sun's rays away from the body. Since it is not absorbed into the skin, the formula

Skin Care

BRUSH ON BLOCK

Brush On Block is a non-irritating, sweat- and water-resistant sunscreen that comes in a self-dispensing, refillable brush. Unlike chemical sunscreens, which work by being absorbed into the skin, Brush On Block features natural minerals that sit on top of the skin and reflect the sun's rays away from the body. Since it is not absorbed into the skin, the formula is less likely to be irritating or clog pores, making it ideal for people with acne-prone or sensitive skin. It also provides broad spectrum SPF 30 protection. Visit www.brushonblock.com for product descriptions, prices, and local retailers. Manufacturer's suggested retail price (MSRP) from $24.95.

protect your skin, and for other dry skin, Recipe for Men created the Recipe for Men collection offers products for moisturizing and protecting your skin. Since winter weather can severely dry out your skin, Recipe for Men's Facial Moisturizer+ includes ingredients such as shea butter, vitamin E, and algae extract, which provide extra hydration for the skin. For more information about the collection, ingredients, and retail locations, visit www.recipeformenusa.com. MSRP from $25.

