b) THE KEY is: B - John 3:16. God loves YOU this much….

V. Chapter 5 – Your Source of Acceptance…Jesus plus nothing else!

A. When G accepts me, I need acceptance from no one else.

   1) When we realize we are accepted and embraced by the great God of the universe, the acceptance of P becomes secondary

   (this thought is captured in Jesus question. John 5:44)
A. Jesus denounced the religious leaders of His day because they were driven by the to garnered men’s approval.

   2) Matthew 23:5 – ALL their works they do to be seen by men.

B. We would the example of the Apostle Paul who did not seek to please men, but to please God alone. I Thess. 2:4-6

C. Seeking the (approval) of God, is in itself an all consuming pursuit. Matthew 25:23, I Cor.3 :12-15

D. There are two practical reasons why we should NOT seek the praise of men:
   1) #1 People are
   2) Even Christians are
      a) Take note – we will all have experience in rejection in the Body of Christ as we have many weaknesses
b) Take note—even Christian L__________ with their best and most sincere efforts are undependable.

3) We are to love one another and be faithful to one another—but to T____________ in God alone!

4) #2 The O__________ of people are insignificant. II Cor. 10:18

   1) The fear of man S______________, but the fear of God F______________!
   2) Whoever T______________ in the Lord will be safe.
   3) The fear of man will freeze our A______________ to move with God!

D. Man’s praise will cause us to loose:
   1) The ability to D____________ the Father’s agenda.
   2) The ability to D____________ the false M______________ of men.

E. This is the main reason why Christians of “Higher anointing” have fallen in various traps—the Praise of Men—from even sincere people… The C__________ of disappointment and the lack of recognition will keep us from self-D__________________.

F. We NEED to hear the inner voice of the Holy Spirit saying to us, “You are my B__________ child in whom I am well pleased.”

G. Receiving Honor from men:

VIII. Chapter 8 – How Daniel handled the Praise of Man – Daniel 6:3
A. Daniel was told twice that he was “Greatly \( \text{B}\) by God.

Daniel – the semi retired “Secretary of State” of Babylon, the “has been” for the former King Nebuchadnezzar’s cabinet, only remembered by two people - God and Queen Mother…turned down all offers by King Belshazzar…The “Out to Pasture” menial task government worker avoided being \( \text{S}\) by the King’s honors, refused all \( \text{R}\) and prestigious advancements! Thankfully, his discernment was still very much intact…the King and his court would be dead by morning.
C. Daniel was safe, because he lived only for the honor of \( \text{G}\) could bestow!
D. When God has a man like Daniel, who is not touched by the praise of men, He is able to \( \text{A}\) His purposes in the earth.

IX. Chapter 9 – The Critical Implications of OVERCOMING:
A. The issues at state in this subject are absolutely crucial in their significance.
   1) If we come to terms with the Praise of Man, we will be guided toward the path of true Kingdom \( \text{F}\).
   2) If we lose here, we hazard becoming \( \text{C}\) in the war that rages around us.
B. Release of \( \text{K}\) Authority
   1) The first issue is – Will God find worthy vessels with which He can \( \text{E}\) the higher dimensions of Kingdom Authority.
      a) There is nothing more \( \text{D}\) in the kingdom than someone who has a little bit of power flowing through their lives, but who is \( \text{T}\) by men’s praises…
      b) How can God give miracle working power to people who \( \text{F}\) off the praise of men – they will self-destruct.
      c) Jesus \( \text{P}\) was not that He looked good – but that His Father looked good. In return the Father honored Him with \( \text{M}\).
      d) God will \( \text{A}\) and empower believers who seek to capture the hearts of others for His Son – \text{Not for themselves}!
   2) The Second issue is – The “I” word (Idolatry):
      a) When I am “feeding off \( \text{S}\)” other than Christ – this is called Idolatry.

c) Possibly the greatest stronghold in the lives of believers everywhere – being N by the approval and honor of men.

d) God wants to be our only S

3) The Third Issues is – Accuracy of Ministry

   a) If we speak something from our own hearts, out of our own resources – we are subconsciously G for the praises of men. John 7:18

   b) The one who speaks the message of God has only one C to look good in God’s eyes and deliver God’s message as faithfully as he/she can.

   c) Jesus called such a person “T”, or the person who hit the bulls eye of the target! He/she will be pleasing in the eyes of God.

4) The Fourth Issues is – Free of all Men

   a) Paul said to the Galatians, “Stand fast I the L wherewith Christ hath made us free and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.”

   b) We only live under the D of trying to protect what we own…when we have something to lose.

   c) When we have nothing to lose (ie, The praise of men) – we are F! We can not be:

      1) B

      2) B

      3) C

   d) When we no longer R the praise of men, we are free of all men. We are free to love all men equally and unconditionally regardless of their attitude or action toward me.

   e) This is the freedom Jesus died to give us!

X. Chapter 10 – God’s COMMITMENT to Help us Overcome

B. One exercise would help us to maintain our focus in this endeavor of “Pleasing God” – that whatever we do – it is for an audience of O! II Corinthians 4:5

C. We need to be aware that if we are not careful in our delivery of God’s message that the listeners can come away – with the wrong message – for example…

   1) Remembering the messenger more than C!

   2) Becoming more focused on the vessel than even on the M!
3) We must be careful not to proclaim O___________. No matter what our position is – Minister, Worship Leader, Youth Leader, Christian Drama Director – you name it!

D. There is (if we are willing to admit it) something in all of us that E____________ the attention and praises of people!

1) However, God will not E____________ His Bride to servants who desire the Bride’s affections! Hegai is a solid example of this – No personal desires toward Esther whom he served – Esther 2:15

   4. How many times and ways do we praise the True Friend – instead of the Bridegroom? And we must know that the B____________ will praise the Friend!

   5. The Question then becomes – what will We do as the Friend of the Bridegroom with this Praise – Believe it, Love it, Look for it, D____________ in the praise? If we do, we no longer area friend, but a competitor!

   6. The Groom’s S_____________ is the Bride’s affections.

G. When our flesh is gratified by the praise of the Bride, Praise of men (both represent the Church), We should:

   1. Be aware of the T_____________ of our Flesh and have a sense of alertness as to what is happening – a check, a sense of pain, a light goes on – in our head or heart…”watch it!”

   2. Now know the extent to which the E_____________ of men’s praise can lead us and pray that God will make us even more sensitive.

   3. Our aim should be as a creed – “I will not receive honor from men.”

   4. As we live in the greater light of His revelation in this arena – we may often feel we are doing W____________.
5. The Victory in this area is not so much as a lifelong journey of Dying to Self.

6. As we give our hearts to serving Him with purer - we should not be surprised to sense a deeper dimension of affection from His heart to ours.
