

THE WORLD'S BEST GIFTS practical pleasures

Lady Like

Inspired by French and Italian Renaissance style, this ruffled fabric dinner jacket is elegant from the elements. Price upon request. 877-337-4220; www.kayle.com

Cup Of Kindness

For those who love a hint of the Orient, this ginger powder, lemon, and sweet orange essence from a Brooklyn-based brand is divine. $33 (small), $33 (large); 800-495-5456; bellis.com

Five Starline

Derived from sustainable local wood in the shape of a traditional French butcher shop sign, Cocobob levels. Pig-Cutting. Doves hang by its tail. $48; 843-309-3000; beachcoco.com

Always In Fashion

First designed in 1996 and recently revived by Oliver Goldsmith, the iconic-ethnic tortoiseshell Kiva sunglasses are a fast trend in sunglasses. $400; 212-464-0500; www.kayle.com

Something Sweet

An distinctive as a great bottle of wine, but more surprising, this slightly creamy 100 percent maple syrup is aged in Kentucky bourbon barrels. $18.95; belgourmet.com

TIDINGS OF COMFORT AND JOY

Nothing beats an every-present that's the very best of its kind. JOY'S LINGER SLEEPS BELLETT SLIPPERS from the original Loro Piana are lined with cashmere for the ultimate in cozy morning puffing. $225; 212-960-3361; loropiana.com. Equal parts to balance and cozy the leather THOROM offers PURE SALT THOROM offers lightweight warmth. $170; 212-721-0122; singsh.com. A pretty box of TRIPLE MILK SOAPS, originally created for Empress Eugenie, enchants with a natural assortment of frank, sandalwood and vanilla. $75; 434-373-3400; boocool.com

