There's nothing stuffy or provincial about the super stylish curation of French designer wares, available exclusively online at Bastille and Sons. After a 20-year career in marketing, and relocating to Sydney from Paris, Toulouse native Valerie Moreno decided to establish the company with a view to introducing design savvy Australians to the delights of contemporary French design.

Honore Croisette armchair, $1,050

"We want to open a window on the bubbly French contemporary design scene and share the understated French aesthetic without the French provincial clichés," says Valerie.
