

teaposity™

Live a life most beautiful.

It began with blooming teas, hand-crafted from premium Silver Needle White Tea, natural herbal flowers, and pure intent. Now, Teaposity the company has bloomed in its own right, with ever-expanding lines of loose-leaf, sachet, and bagged teas, all with the same outstanding quality of our original and beautiful blooming designs.

Our line of elegant, hand-made glassware has also expanded, and now includes modern, double-walled glass cups, pots, and presses. So, sip away. Experience a pause of all thoughts in a journey that begins and ends with the unexpected. Balance, relax, and live a life most beautiful.

The Concert Series

Whole dried flowers, tea leaves, and more come together to create a new concept in tea, the Teaposity Concert Series. Choice is good, and that's why this exciting new line of teas and herbal infusions features innovative packaging to enhance your tea experience. You have the choice to brew in the specially designed nylon sachet, or to open the sachet to brew as loose tea. Each pyramid-shaped sachet contains 2 oz of tea and is good for multiple infusions. Brew away and enjoy, let the flavor delight and brew again.

Sonata, Symphony, Concerto, and Duet make up the first line of the Concert Series. Each tea truly embodies the unique sensory experience of a musical performance, with all-natural ingredients and only the largest, most vibrant whole flowers.

They come together in perfect harmony, creating unique flavors and stunning visual displays. Carefully balanced to please the palate and benefit the body, these teas also feature their own exceptional health benefits, ranging from helping your complexion to lowering cholesterol levels.

Choice is Good - Brewing Options

The Concert Series proves that choice is good, letting you decide whether you want to brew in the nylon sachet, or to open the specially designed sachet to brew loose. When brewed loose, the whole dried flowers open and create a mesmerizing and beautiful display. This revolutionary sachet makes the Concert Series easy to enjoy when you're in a rush, or as a relaxing, meditative moment when you can open the sachet and watch the flowers and leaves steep.
