

Disadvantages and Advantages of Motte and Bailey Castles

William needed to build castles _____. Many English people continued to rebel against the _____. He needed to construct _____ along the coast and across the _____ in order to protect him and his followers from the angry locals. The first castles were built of _____ and stone, as these building resources were easy to find in _____ areas.

There were two main parts to the castle. The _____, which was an earth mound where a small _____ fort was situated. The other part was called a _____. Often livestock, horses and soldiers families lived in this enclosure.

BAILEY, QUICKLY, WOOD, FOREST, LOOKOUT, MOTTE, KING, DEFENCES, COUNTRYSIDE