Artificial Intelligence in Chinese Medicine™
Superior to General Herbal Therapies & Common Acupuncture Techniques

Dr. Luke Cua’s Clinic Experiences of Seven Generations
You can learn a standard TCM analysis system to get objective findings. Dr. Luke Cua’s simple treatment system which integrated TCM and nanotechnology, will help you increase treatment results from traditional 30% to approximately 90%.
This one day revolutionary training class is worth years of traditional classes.

Dr. J.V. Wright MD (Integrative Medicine Pioneer): Dr. Luke Cua’s system allows practitioners who (like me) were not taught Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) in medical school to easily utilize TCM herbal formulas with their patients, extending our capabilities to help our patients with safe, effective, and time-tested natural remedies. Highly recommended!

Dr. J. Turner: …as a western trained M.D. who took HELM’s Acupuncture Course for Physicians, along with additional CME courses in this field, I found that the technique in Dr. Cua’s TCM course was both understandable and rewarding.

Dr. H. Briks, D.C.: I’ve been involved with the New Vita for 5 years. I’ve also had a personal in-office seminar with Dr. Luke Cua. I highly recommend them and the fantastic work of Dr. Cua.

Dr. R. Henry: Dr. Cua’s knowledge is not found in other books, but in [his] intimate knowledge of the human biochemistry of the body and then [he] has the great ability to transfer that knowledge into herbal remedies that truly make a difference.
