Some items run smaller or bigger than what is shown. Some smalls fit more like an extra-small or they may fit more like a medium depending on how they run. We will try to put this information in the item description.

If you are unsure about what size you need, feel free to message us at perchboutique@yahoo.com.

If you are in between sizes, we suggest going up a size. So if you are an 8/10, we suggest going with a large.
