

IMPROV SCENARIOS

INSTRUCTIONS: Cut out the cards below, and shuffle them up. Pick out a card, and act out the scenario with a friend.

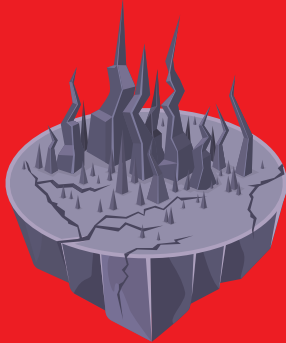

Two people argue without speaking to one another.

A person ends up on a deserted island after days lost at sea. After dragging their ship ashore, the person encounters a talking rat.

Two friends enter a haunted house and see a ghost.

Two strangers find themselves stuck in an elevator. One person immediately has a panic attack. The other person tries to calm them down.

Two students are sitting a test. One student is trying their best to answer the questions, while the other is finding every way possible to distract them.

Two people have the same dream and tell each other about it.

A person witnesses a store robbery. They tell the police officer what they saw.

Two prisoners discuss their plan to escape jail.

The most wanted man in America discovers the identity of a secret agent.

Two friends are dining at a restaurant. One of them discovers a giant spider in their burger.

An audience member accuses a famous pop singer of lip-syncing on stage.

A ballet teacher and a student have a dance-off.

A person gets lost on their way to the dentist. They end up in a job interview.

A parent convinces a child that there are no monsters under their bed.

