WINEMAKING NOTES

An ideal lead up to the harvest of V22 with a cool summer and no rain. Machine harvested parcels, fermented, hand plunged and treated gently throughout the ferment, along with wild yeast fermentation, created wines of elegance and texture. The BVRC12 clone had a 10% whole bunch inclusion to produce delicate petaled fragrances and lifted white spices while the Margaret Rive clone delivered typical richness and depth of flavour. 20% new French oak maturation for 7 months allowed the wine to soften and resolve, A wine of elegance and refinement that shows depth of tannin and softness of fruit and captures the vintage in its entirety.
