1. Christmas Counting

We're going to have a party, cause
Christmas has begun,
What will you be bringing, to give us Christmas fun?

(2 children on stage introduce the skit)

One Christmas tree, that's what I'll bring,
With tinsel, lights, and everything!

(1 Child enters with tree)

Two green wreaths to hang on the door,
With mistletoe, and holly, and ribbons, and more.

(2 children with wreaths enter. Hang up.)

Three toy drums, boom, boom, boom, boom!
Oh too noisy! There's not enough room!

(3 children with drums enter . They should bang them loudly)

Four Christmas cards from far away,
Say hello to us today.

(4 children dressed as cards enter)

Five little presents, wrapped in blue,
Four for me, and one for you.

(1 child enters carrying 5 presents)

Six Christmas songs to sing together,
Doesn't matter what the weather.

(All on stage - and off - sing Jingle Bells)

Seven candy canes, all white and red,
Better brush your teeth, before you go to bed.

(1 child enters carrying 7 candy canes)

Eight reindeer pull a sleigh through the snow,
I think one has a red, red nose.

(8 children wearing antlers enter. one has a red nose)

Nine Christmas stockings, hanging in a row,
Fill them up before you go!

(1 child enters carrying stockings, hang them on prepared hooks or hold)

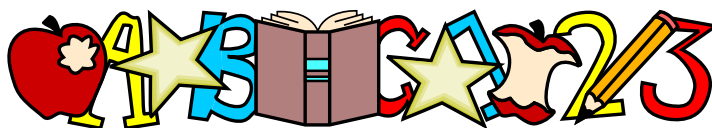

Ten Christmas cookies, yum, yum. yum,
Better eat some, before they're gone!

(All children who are left, enter with cookies on a plate)

We're having a party, 'cause Christmas has begun,
Thank you for bringing, so much Christmas fun.

(Everyone)

Optional: Sing 'We Wish You A Merry Christmas'

2. The Christmas ABC's:

A is for angel on top of the tree,
B is for bell that is ringing for me.

C is for candles, burning they glow,
D is for donkey, who brought them you know.

E is for elves, so merry and bright,
F is for fireplace, he'll come down at night.

G is for gingerbread H is for house,
Where everyone's sleeping as quiet as a mouse.

I is for icicles, shining in the sun,
J is for jingle bells, singing is fun.

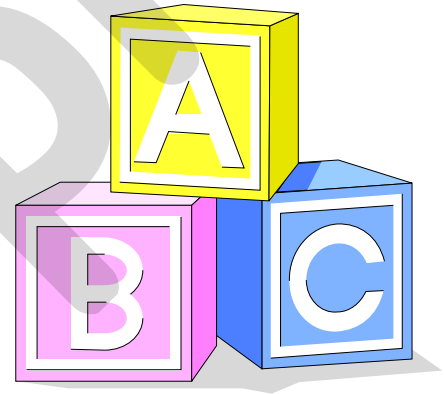

K is for Kings who came from afar,
Following the Christmas star.

L is for lights on the green Christmas tree,
M is for mistletoe - but you won't kiss me!

(ending is not given)

Included in this selection are directions for making an oversize alphabet on your computer.

*The Christmas alphabet song follows.
The piano/vocal music is included in the guide.*

5. The Christmas Turkey Dance

Formation: Children form a single circle. Face into the centre of the circle

Gonna eat my Turkey, gobble motion 4 times with hands
gonna eat my Turkey flap elbows
Gonna gobble it up, twist down
Yum! Yum! Yum! Yum! 4 claps

Gonna eat my Turkey, gobble motion 4 times with hands
gonna eat my Turkey flap elbows
Gonna gobble it up, twist down
Yum! Yum! Yum! Yum! 4 claps

Gonna eat my Turkey, gobble motion 4 times with hands

Yum! Yum! Yum! Yum! 4 claps

Gonna eat my Turkey, gobble motion 4 times with hands
gonna eat my Turkey flap elbows
Gonna gobble it up, twist down
Yum! Yum! Yum! Yum! 4 claps

Face the person in front of you. Extend arms like turkey wings, and slowly flap up and down, while you step the beat.

Got to get away, got to go real fast
Don't want Christmas Eve, to be my very last

Turn and go in the opposite direction:

Got to get away, far away from here
I don't want to be the reason for your Christmas cheer!

Dance repeats

This is a sample of this selection. The piano/vocal score is included in the K-3 guide.

This is the bird dance or chicken dance with Christmas words. This is a big hit with parents and is really easy for your students to learn. Invite audience participation - on the last repeat of the verse/chorus, invite the audience to join in!

6. No Cookies for Santa:

A one act play for grade 2-3

Setting: Santa's house. The Elfettes and Mrs Claus are having a cookie baking party. They are dressed in elf costumes with aprons. Mrs. Claus is in a red dress with a ruffled cap and an apron.

Elfette 1: I really like our cookie baking party!

Elfette 2: It's a lot more fun baking our cookies together than doing it by myself.

Elfette 3: We've certainly made enough.

Elfette 4: At last count we'd made 12 thousand cookies. That's a thousand cookies each!

Mrs. Claus: That might last Santa 2 or 3 days. He loves his cookies.

Elfette 1: What are you going to do this Christmas Eve when Santa delivers his toys?

Mrs. Claus: I guess I'll be staying home and watching videos. I sure wish I could go along. Every year Santa goes on his round the world trip, and there's never enough room for me to go along.

Elfette 2: I'm sure if Santa would pack more efficiently he could make room for you.

Elfette 3: He could make smaller toys. Those boys and girls don't need all those huge boxes. They open this gigantic box and there is just a little toy inside.

Elfette 4: Why don't you insist that he take you along? What could you do to convince him?

Mrs. Claus: I keep leaving travel brochures on the coffee table. But he doesn't seem to notice.

Elfette 1: What would make Santa notice?

(Elfettes all pause and think)

This is a just a sample of this selection. The complete play with 3 songs is given in the guide. This play is suitable for a grade 2-3 class to perform. The girls sing "No More Cookies for Santa" in a style similar to "No More Angels in Heaven" from "Joseph". The boys (elves) sing "We Just Love Our Cookies" with an accompaniment like the song "We Will We Will Rock You". The play ends with a "Christmas Greeting" song. The play is about 10-15 minutes long.

K-3 Christmas Concert Ideas

Categorical Index

Poems & Choral Speech:

1. Christmas Counting: A counting poem for Christmas giving each child in your class a part in the skit. Time: 3-5 minutes
2. The Christmas ABC's: A poem with all the letters of the alphabet. Give each child a letter (or 2 if you have a small class) and turn the letter around at it's part in the poem. The poem is followed by a short ABC song. Time: 3-5 minutes.
3. Please Santa, Give Me A Break: A choral speech explaining to Santa all the 'accidents' that have happened this year.
16. Christmas Finger plays - 6 poems with actions for K-1

Reader's Theatre:

4. The Elves & The Shoemakers: A reader's theatre presentation with a song and dance for a Grade 2-3 class to perform. 5-8 minutes long.

Dance:

5. The Christmas Turkey Dance: You loved the Bird Dance. Now some familiar actions are used in a Merry Christmas Dance and song about the turkey that didn't want to be eaten for Christmas Dinner.
15. A Christmas Ribbon Dance: A choreographed ribbon dance set to Tchaikovsky's "Trepak" from the Nutcracker.

One Act Play:

6. No Cookies For Santa: A one act play for one class to perform. Mrs. Claus wants to go along with Santa on his Round the World trip, but there isn't enough room. Santa won't get any more cookies until he figures out a way to take his wife along. Mrs. Claus and the Elfettes sing the first song; Santa and the Elves rap and sing the second song, and all join in a traditional Christmas Greeting song. Time: 5-8 minutes.
