out the win-dow; the grass is not so green an - y - more. — The lawn is white from the snow ov - er - night. We're head - ing out the door. — We just can't wait — to get out and es - cape — our room, our house, our bed. —

Put - ting on our mit - tens, Mom, don't have kit - tens! Our toques are on our head. — 'Cause we

3. The Snow is Falling

The snow is start-ed; I'm so down-heart-ed be-cause I know the drill. I can try to hide__ and stay in - side,__ But there is a job to fill.

Un-der the bed I cov-er my head, Hop-ing she will pass by.____

In-to my room Mom comes with a broom. _"You found me!" I say with a sigh. _ Yes, the
